A calm two-day outline

Day one: arrive with a buffer

- Aim to reach your accommodation before the evening rush.
- Keep identity documents and only essential belongings with you.
- Check current entry and security rules before approaching the temple.
- Leave a generous buffer around any ceremony you hope to attend.
- Use the evening for the seafront area only if local weather and safety advice permit.

Day two: an unhurried circuit

- Start after confirming current opening information.
- Choose one or two nearby places rather than packing in every attraction.
- Keep the final two hours flexible for meals, luggage collection, and station transfer.
- Recheck your train, bus, or flight status directly with the operator.

Packing checklist

- Government-issued photo identification
- Modest, weather-suitable clothing
- Refillable water bottle where permitted
